

Updated Goodwill Policy, Effective July 23, 2020

Canadian North is offering a Goodwill Policy to customers whose travel has been impacted by COVID-19. Please locate the scenario below that is applicable to your situation to understand how you may benefit from this policy. This policy is subject to change or cancellation at any time, at which point the terms and conditions of Canadian North's tariff and the fare product purchased will apply.

Is this policy applicable to my reservation?

Canadian North is offering a Goodwill Policy to customers whose travel has been impacted by COVID-19. This policy is applicable to:

- Ticket numbers with the prefix '518' (tickets with alternate prefixes were purchased from other carriers, so customers should contact those carriers for changes);
- Tickets purchased directly from Canadian North or via Travel Agency Partners including online travel agencies (for tickets purchased through a travel agency partner the customer must contact their agency for modifications)

Please select the below scenario that applies to you:

I want to use my future travel credit or unused ticket.

The total value of a future travel credit or unused ticket can be applied for travel on Canadian North and in conjunction with our codeshare and interline partners. New travel must be booked and tickets issued prior to the future travel credit or ticket expiry date. Any residual value will be applied to a new voucher that will be valid for 12 months from the date of issue.

I have an existing booking I want to change or cancel

My booking was made before July 23, 2020 and is for travel on or before October 31, 2020	You can modify or cancel your reservation without a change fee, regardless of fare type. When new travel is booked, the change fee will be waived, however if there is a fare difference for the new travel dates, you must pay the fare difference. Routing changes are permitted without a change fee, however the fare difference will be charged. Name changes are not permitted. For non-refundable fares, your future travel credit will be valid until December 31, 2021.
My booking was made between July 23, 2020 and October 31, 2020, for any future travel date	You can modify or cancel your reservation, regardless of fare type, and the applicable change fee will be waived once (the applicable change fee will be applied for any additional changes). When new travel is booked, any applicable fare difference for new travel dates must be paid. Routing changes are permitted and the fare difference will be charged. Name changes are not permitted. For non-refundable fares, your future travel credit will be valid until December 31, 2021.

Applicable change fees will apply on new bookings made on or after November 1, 2020
